EXTRAORDINARY LAWSUIT.

A Man Sues His Father, Mother and Brother-in-law for the Recovery of His Wife.

Conspiracy to Obtain Divorce and Second Marriage.

Phases of Chicago Civilization.

[From the Chicago Tribune.]

A proceeding in law of a somewhat novel character was yesterday commenced in the Circuit Court. It was commenced by a capias under which the plaintiff, one Fayette Lincoln, until recently a resident in the town of Palatine, seeks to recover damages from his father, mother, and brother-in-law, a young man named George Ball, for alienating the affections of his wife from him with a view to procuring a divorce from him, so that she may advantage herself of a desire on the part of another man to marry her. The intention is to prosecute an action on the case, the damages to be laid at five thousand dollars.

The statement of the plaintiff, as set forth in his affidavit, to hold to bail, disrobed of its formal clauses, is as follows: He complains of B. J. Bennet, Susan M. Bennet, Lucien E. Bennett and George Ball; the first three the relatives of his wife, and the other charged as a co-conspirator. He states that he was duly married to Emma F. Bennet on the 22d day of March, 1865, and that to about October last they lived together mutually happy and contented, he maintaining his household to the extent of his means and supporting her in a condition adequate to the amount of their worldly prosperity. During that space of time, at her desire, he had afforded means for her education in ladylike accomplishments. The wife, however, he alleges, desired to avail herself of greater facilities for acquiring a polished education. She sought to leave their then home in the suburbs, that she might attend school in the city, and board with her parents while she was a scholar. To this Lincoln says he assented, and during October last she, as well as her brother Lucien, one of the defendants, have lived in Chicago, at their parent's domicil. He has also, he avers, since disposed of his farm at Palatin for less than it was worth, to please his wife, who early evinced a desire for city life and associations.

He charges that since this date, when he let his wife come to this city, her mother (the Susan of his complaint) has entered upon a course of defamation and insult, with a view to bring about a permanent separation between him and his wife. He has been, he says, allowed but unfrequent interviews with his wife, who, however, availing herself of other means, frequently communicated with him in terms of great affection for him, but with words denunciatory of her maternal parent, whom she accused of ill treatment and abuse toward her. These communications, he says, almost invariably expressed the desire, as well as the intention, to return to him.

This action is brought upon a somewhat altered state of affairs. The complaining husband says that while he has been assenting to his wife's better education, her mother and the defendant, Ball, have concocted a divorce from him and a marriage to Ball; a matrimonial union which the relatives think more eligible than that which binds her. To this end it is charged that, with the consent of the wife's father, and with the assistance of her brother, reports have been scattered broadcast among his acquaintances derogatory of his character, as well as that there has been, by a series of letters, an attempt made to induce him to leave the State.

He believes this attempt was to enable a bill for divorce to be filed, so that, as is usual, a default might be taken and a decree rendered by default, where the defendant Ball would step in and upon pretext of his (plaintiff's) desertion induce his wife to marry him (Ball). It is charged in the proceeding that the brother Lucien is active in all this. That he has written letters, and, at one time, proposed to plaintiff to leave the State, when he would inform him how to regain his wife's love, if he would go out of Illinois to learn news; that at another time he proposed to join him in a mining speculation in Omaha, provided three hundred dollars was advanced to pay all expenses. It is charged generally that Ball wants to marry Mrs. Lincoln, and brother, mother and father are helping him in his endeavor to procure her for a wife.

Horse Flesh.

[From the Turf, Field and Farm.]

Now that Paris and London epicures have turned their attention to horse flesh, and that horse banquets have become the sensation of the day, we may look forward to the time when broken down horses will pass from the street to the butcher shop, and from the butcher shop to the kettle or oven. A novelty is always popular, provided it is properly introduced, and since horse meat has been washed down with copious draughts of wine around banquet boards in London as well as Paris, prestige has been given to it, and the fashion doubtless will become general in time. Horse flesh as an article of human diet is not a new innovation, as in several parts of Asia wild horses are killed almost exclusively for food; and it is said that the Calmuc Tartars are so partial to this kind of flesh that they seldom eat any other. Horse flesh, years ago, was constantly, as it is now, exposed for sale in the markets of Toumen. The Tartars are not satisfied with the flesh of equine steeds alone; they go further, and drink the milk of the mare, and when the milk is abundant they convert it into butter and cheese. Whether we shall establish horse daries, when horse flesh becomes a regular article of table diet, is a question that time will answer. Civilization goes backward in more ways than one; at least in many instances it goes to barbarous countries for novelties, and adopts the customs of barbarians. In view of this fact, is not our boasted progress all a sham? Civilization, according to modern interpretation, is simply the introduction of a new novelty when the old one has become stale; and for a supply of novelties we constantly go to countries and peoples that make no pretentions to what we call enlightment. Civilization, at best, is an artificial state, for which reason what may be regarded as established natural habits often are recognized by it as something entirely new. Though horse flesh has long been relished as an article of food by some people, it is new to us, who live within the pale of civilization, as a table diet; therefore we will learn to have it served up in soups, broils and roasts, even if the value of our equine breeds is not increased thereby.

DETAILS OF THE DRAWING.

A suitable Committee of Responsible Gentlemen will be selected to conduct the drawing and awarding of the prizes, on the day appointed, at MERCANTILE LIBRARY HALL, on the following plan:

One hundred thousand numbers, represnting the Certificates issued, will be placed in one wheel, and five hundred tickets, inscribed with the names of the prizes, to wit: "Paschall House," etc., will be placed in another. From these wheels a number and a prize will be drawn at the same time and the number drawn will take the prize drawn with it.

The prizes will be ready for delivery upon the result of the award being known, and the persons by whom the ten real estate prizes are drawn, will receive deeds to the same, with title clear and unencumbered.

All money received upon the sale of these Certificates will be placed in responsible banking houses of St Louis, Missouri, where it will remain, to the credit of the Association, until after the drawing takes place.

NATIONAL TELEGRAPH.

THE NATIONAL TELEGRAPH COMPANY

A NEW enterprise, to be known as the National Telegraph Company, has been organized with valuable franchises conferred by a recent act of Congress for the purpose of establishing Trunk Lines of Telegraphs on all the principal railroads and mail routes in the United States. The Stock is to be issued upon the same principle as that of the Merchant's Union Express Company, which recently commenced operations. The design is to interest the entire business community in the enterprise. This is done, not so much to dispose of the stock as it is to secure the business of the country which the lines pass

THE CAPITAL IS TO BE

$10,000,000

In 100,000 shares of the par value of

$100 PER SHARE

But the actual amount to be paid in cash is

$35 PER SHARE

and this amount is to be paid as follows: One per cent. of the par at the time of subscribing, and no more until the entire capital has been subscribed, and then on calls to be made by the Board of Directors; installments not to exceed five per cent per month. When thirty-five per cent of the par value of the shares has been paid, certificates of stock will be issued. This will give the Company a paid up

CASH CAPITAL OF $3,500,000

Which will be sufficient to duplicate lines to all or nearly all the paying points reached by the present monopoly.

The present Telegraph Companies throughout the country have been consolidated into one huge monopoly, and are now earning over SIX MILLIONS OF DOLLARS per year, or over one hundred per cent. on the actual cost of their lines their present capital having been watered over ONE THOUSAND per cent.

THE NATIONAL TELEGRAPH COMPANY have a recognition from the United States Government of the importance of their enterprise, with a grant of the most valuable franchises ever conferred upon a telegraph company. No competing line has ever had the right now granted by Congress to this company to construct and operate lines over every RAILROAD and MAIL ROUTE in the United States. The position of this Company differs from that of any company ever before organized. The question of the RIGHT OF WAY IS FOREVER SETTLED.

The Stockholders of this Company cannot be sold out or TRANSFERRED to any other Company. The act of Congress under which this Company has been organized prohibits any transfer of the franchise granted.

CALLS---HOW TO BE MADE

One per cent of the Stock will be required on subscribing and subsequent calls, not to exceed five per cent. per month, will be made by the Board of Directors, from time to time, as may be necessary, to supply funds to construct and equip the lines; but no calls will be made after the one per cent. is paid, until the entire Capital Stock shall have been subscribed

ACTUAL CAPITAL REQUIRED

The Company confidently believe that thirty-five per cent of the Capital Stock will construct and fully equip

25,000 Miles of Wire

Which will connect all the commercial centers and important places in the United States. This opinion rests upon the most reliable estimates and responsible offers to construct and equip the lines.

THE NATIONAL TELEGRAPH COMPANY is organized under the laws of the state of New York, and franchises conferred by an act of Congress, approved July 24, 1866.

EDITORIAL
THE PEN IS MIGHTIER THAN THE SWORD

FRIDAY, : : : : MARCH 27, 1868

THE negro having arrayed himself against the white men of the South, it is evident that the next Presidential contest will be fought upon the issue, whether the negro or the white man shall have the supremacy. In such a contest we have no difficulty in forming an opinion and in taking our position. Without the least hesitancy we go with our own race. Our natural instincts lead in that direction. The negroes have, almost en masse, consolidated themselves in a Black Man's party, and it is now the duty of the Caucasian race, throughout the union, to unite and concentrate themselves into the White Man's party. This position has been forced upon the white race. In the recent elections throughout the South, the negro everywhere, arrayed himself against the white men who gave him employment. Headed by a few dirty vagabonds, the negroes on every available occasion, march up to the polls and in solid phalanx cast their votes against the interests, desires and happiness of the tax-paying white people who give them employment. This suicidal, unnatural and ungrateful policy has aroused the white men of the Union to a keen sense of their duty. The white men of the South were raised with the negro. Their interests ought to be the same. There should be a mutual feeling of sympathy and dependence. The white race did not desire the issue of black and white parties thrust upon them. "But it is now evident that a majority of the poor infatuated blacks, blinded by the most absurd and false ideas of their strength and importance, have determined to hurl themselves on all occasions against their employers and best friends. These deluded and misguided creatures have determined to proscribe the respectable whites, and to support a class of abandoned adventurees in whose keeping neither our lives, liberty nor property would be safe. We regret to say that while a few of the freedmen are open to reason and dread an antagonism which they know will be fatal to their welfare, a large majority in our cities, at least, have resolved to make an issue with their late masters. And this they are doing in the most offensive and impudent manner, screaming and bellowing with delight at the abuse which foul-mouthed vagabonds heap upon the very gentlemen whose houses they occupy and whose wages they accept. On the public squares, in their churches and in their public meetings, it is notorious that nothing delights these unfortunate creatures half so much as abuse of ninety-nine out of every hundred of the white men of the South. For this vindictive spirit, and for this desire to proscribe their employers, there is no excuse. It is a manifestation of malevolence which is utterly without justification, and this insolent and insulting black minority can never be brought to their senses by flattery and kind words. They must be taught to feel the power of the white majority which predominates in the United States. When they have learned that, as a "black man's party," they are powerless in the hands of the white men, they will become orderly and useful, and not before. And when they have been whipped out of their boots, and utterly routed, they will listen much more respectfully to kind and well meant advice than they now do. When they have discovered that the gentlemen whom they delight to hear branded as "rebels" and "traitors" by the most wretched outcasts from white society, are still a power in the Union, they will find that their true interest and strength cannot be found in the ranks of a "black man's party." This lesson we can teach the freedmen by a thorough and speedy organization, and its good effects will be very enduring. We must utterly rout this black Radical party, and then we can form an enduring treaty of peace. The white men of the nation must combine. They must organize and hurl their whole strength against the malignant, incendiary, agrarian, black and Radical organization which is menacing their lives and property. We must defeat and utterly rout it, and when the freedmen have learned that the white race is still the dominatn race throughout the Union, we shall have a restoration of those kindly relations which a few degraded whites have disturbed. We must speedily teach the blacks that it is not safe for them to meet in midnight conclave to conspire and plot against and abuse those to whom they wear faces of kindness and good will. There must be an end to the open and foul-mouthed billingsgate which those in our employment collect by thousands to hear heaped upon the white men of the South. This state of things is without a precedent, and must lead to the most terrible results if it continues much longer." Both STEPHEN A. DOUGLAS and ABRAHAM LINCOLN were the first to propose and advocate a white man's party. The sentiments below were uttered by these two distinguished gentlemen when they were candidates for the United States Senate in Illinois, against each other, in 1858:

> I hold that this Government was made on the white basis, by white men, for the benefit of white men and their posterity forever, and should be administered by white men, and none others. I do not believe that the Almighty made the negro capable of self-government.—Stephen A. Douglas.

Now hear President LINCOLN in reply:

> I AM NOT, NOR EVER HAVE BEEN, IN FAVOR OF MAKING VOTERS OR JURORS OF NEGROES, nor of qualifying them to hold office, nor intermarrying them with white people, and I will say, in addition to this, that there is a PHYSICAL DIFFERENCE between the white and black races, which, I believe, will forever forbid the two races living together on terms of social and political equality—and, inasmuch as they cannot so live, while they do remain together, there must be a position of superior and inferior, and I, as much as any other man, am in favor of having the SUPERIOR POSITION ASSIGNED TO THE WHITE RACE.

This will be the great issue in the next Presidential contest. The people of the North have already declared in favor of the White Man's party, and since the negroes of the South, in every election, have united and arrayed themselves against the white man, it is natural that the white men of the South should join the White Man's party. In taking this position, however, we have no desire to abridge the rights of person or property of the colored people. They are entitled to every protection known to the laws; but they have no right to demand that social restrictions shall be abolished to suit their tastes.

"GO ABROAD to hear the news," and go to Nashville for the biggest liar, according to his size, in the State of Tennessee. The quinine editor of the "loil" mendicant there has the following in a late issue:

> The rebels of Shelby and the adjoining counties seem to be determined in their efforts to drive the loyal men from the county. At Somerville, a short time ago, there was a meeting of the citizens, at which the constitution of 1834 was adopted, those present swearing this should be a "white man's government."
> Our informant says the KuKlux have organized there in large numbers, and ride about the country terrifying all who are not of their own stripe in political sentiments and belief. Marauders, horse thieves and robbers are extremely plentiful, and it is next to impossible to execute the civil law. This is a gloomy picture, but true.

As to the meeting at Somerville, we never heard of it before, but if any of the people there had the audacity to indorse any of the principles of their forefathers, it affords a sound Jacobin pretext for denouncing all concerned as rebels, and the sounder the principles are the worse the rebel. The assertion, though, concerning the Ku-Klux excites ridicule and contempt—ridicule that any one should be fool enough to start or repeat a silly story, and contempt for the coward who shakes in his socks at some imaginary evil which he knows is due him for his double-dealing, sycophancy, falsehood and irreclaimable personal depravity. The last paragraph he writes is a lie, without foundacion or shadow, except in his polluted brain. Even the radicals in this end of West Tennessee have not had the face to make any such charges—no one has found any difficulty in executing the law, except grandame HUNTER. The Ku-Klux have not made their appearance, as far as we know, in West Tennessee. Their operations, we believe, have been confined to Middle Tennessee, where their mission has been to look after a horse thief or two, and murderer, and to scare niggers and such fellows as this billious dealer in contraband quinine and distiller of "loil leeg" falsehoods.

WE published in yesterday's AVALANCHE a communication from R. ABBY, Esq., discussing the Mississippi levee and railroad project, which has been advocated by our fellow citizen, MINOR MERRIWETHER, Esq. As we have never seen Mr. MERRIWETHER's scheme fully described, we cannot endorse or condemn it. There is something so plausible in the idea of making a levee on the banks of the Mississippi river the bed of a railroad, that we would like to see whether it is possible. The opposition to the levee system in the "hill counties" of Mississippi will certainly give way, and all co-operate to reclaim the lowlands of that State from overflow and ruin.

Charles Billit, of New Orleans, on Thursday last, intent upon self destruction, prepared a bombshell, covered it with his body, and lighted the fuse. His plan was a perfect success.

Sydney Hydeley, eighteen years old, shot his cousin, Carrie May Billings, at Wynantsville, near Troy, New York, on Friday. He was handling his gun carelessly, when it was discharged, accidentally, of course, the ball entering her forehead, and she fell dead.

It is proposed to consolidate Jersey City and the neighboring towns on New York Bay, in Hudson county, New Jersey, into a single large city. The new city would extend for some twelve miles along the shore of the Hudson river and New York Bay, and would begin its existence with a population of 120,000.

It is pretty well established now that two of the Russellville bank robbers were recently pardoned out of the penitentiary by one of our Governors—either Boynton or Brownlow. They are probably of the crowd that presented little Smith with a cane and indorsed him as a "gentleman." He is a gentleman among them, and when those loyal robbers are apprehended, they will doubtless employ him as counsel, and present him with a suit of clean clothes.

The Chicago Tribune alleges that "the cost of defending Andrew Johnson on the scale mapped out cannot be less than fifty thousand dollars, and that the whisky ring undoubtedly furnish this immenee sum for this purpose." On the other hand, the cost of prosecuting the President will not be less than one million dollars, and the people's pockets undoubtedly furnish this enormous sum for this purpose.

Stevens' bill for the admission of Alabama declares the Constitution submitted February 4th to be the fundamental law for the provisional Government, and officers then elected shall enter on their duties. The Governor shall convene the Legislature chosen at said election, and the Legislature is empowered to resubmit said Constitution to the qualified electors of Alabama for ratification. When a majority of voters shall have ratified the Constitution, and the Legislature shall have ratified the amendment to the Constitution of the United States known as the fourteenth article, then the Constitution of Alabama may be presented to Congress for approval.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, March 26.

By direction of the President, General Hancock has been granted leave to absent himself from Washington for four days.

The receipts from customs for the week ending March 21st were $2,902,929.

The Senate to-day ratified the treaty between the United States and the North German Confederation, providing for free emigration, and that naturalization changes nationality.

The vote was twenty-nine to eight. The treaty was slightly amended, but not in any important particulars. The ground of opposition was, that the confederation might, according to its provisions, interfere with emigrants before the full time of naturalization had expired, as Austria had done in the Kosta case.

The House Committee on Foreign Affairs will, it is said, when the impeachment trial is over, report in favor of an appropriation for the purchase of Russian America, in accordance with the terms of the treaty,

The President has sent to the Senate the nomination of R. F. Miller, as Associate Justice of the Supreme Court for Idaho.

Fortieth Congress--First Session

WASHINGTON, March 26.

SENATE.

The chair submitted a protest from the Legislature of Kentucky against the wrong done that State in excluding its Representatives from the House, and denouncing it as unconstitutional, etc. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Also, a memorial from the South Carolina Convention, praying for the removal of political disabilities from several persons named therein. Referred.

Mr. Chandler reported favorably from the Committee on Commerce, on a bill to prevent and punish frauds on revenues, and for other purposes. Referred to the Committee on Finance.

Mr. Sherman, from the Committee on Finance, reported favorably on the bill to refund certain duties paid under protest.

Mr. Trumbull introduced a bill in relation to the qualification of jurors, which he asked to have placed on the callendar, as it had already been considered by the Judiciary Committee.

On the motion of Mr. Summer, at 12:25 p.m. the Senate went into executive session.

At 1:30 p.m. the Senate resumed legislative business, and took up the President's veto. The bill was passed over the veto by 32 against 9.

The chair appointed as a Committee of Conference on the part of the Senate on the Tax Exemption bill, Messrs. Sherman, Williams and Morgan

Mr. Trumbull introduced a bill in relation to the qualification of jurors, which provides that no person shall be held incompetent to act as a juror on trials for public officials against the United States by reason of having formed or expressed an opinion upon matters to be submitted to such Grand Jury for investigation, or upon the guilt or innocence of the person accused, if such opinion be merely founded on public rumor, statements in public journals, or the common history of the times, provided he be otherwise competent, and upon his oath declare, and it appears to the satisfaction of the Court, that notwithstanding such opinion, he can and will impartially decide upon the matter to be submitted, and try the accused upon the crime charged, and give a true verdict upon the evidence; but the Court may, in its discretion, set aside such grand or petit juries.

The Committee on Elections yesterday heard the argument of Mr. McGreety, the gentleman who contests the seat of Mr. Hooper; and to-day the committee heard the reply of Mr. Hooper. It is supposed that definite action will be taken in the case to-morrow.

HOUSE.

The Speaker announced that the first business in order was the joint resolution to regulate the tariff for freights and passengers on the Union and Central Pacific railroads.

The question being on rescinding the previous question on Mr. Price's motion to refer it to the Committee on the Pacific Railroad, and after debate, the previous question was voted down by 63 to 67.

After further discussion Mr. Washburne, of Illinois, said he wished to submit a proposition, which was, that this should be considered a test vote and those who vote for its reference should be considered as in favor of the companie's maintaining their exorbitant tariffs. [The latter part of the sentence was almost inaudible on account of the calls for order.]

After quiet was restored, the motion to refer it to the Committee was agreed to—yeas, 83; nays, 49.

The Speaker presented various communications, including the protest of the Kentucky Legislature, referred to in the Senate's proceedings, which was referred to the Committee on Elections.

Mr. Washburne, of Illinois, called up the motion made on the 26th of February, by Mr. Washburne, of Wisconsin, to reconsider the vote by which a letter from the Secretary of the Treasury to relieve the Union Pacific Railroad was ordered to be printed.

Mr. Washburne, of Wisconsin, in the course of his remarks said that it appears by this morning's Chronicle that there was another scheme afloat to build another Pacific railroad, from Cairo to Arkansas and New Mexico; and he believed that this and the other Pacific railroad scheme now on foot would require two hundred to two hundred and fifty millions of dollars.

The motion to reconsider was tabled.

Mr. Loflin, from the Committee on Printing, reported resolutions for printing 15,300 copies of J. Ross Browne's report on Mineral Resources, for the use of the House, and 500 copies of the report of the Commission on Life Saving Inventions, which, after discussion, were adopted.

Mr. Farnsworth, from the Reconstruction Committee, reported back the bill to admit Alabama to representation in Congress. This bill was published in the House proceedings of March 18, with the following additional section:

Sec. 3. That the said State of Alabama shall be admitted to representation in Congress, and shall be recognized as a State, only on the following conditions: That the Constitution of Alabama shall never be so amended as to deprive any citizen or any class of citizens of the United States of the right to vote, as by the Constitution herein recognized; nor shall it be so changed as to allow any person to vote who is excluded from office by the fourteenth article of the amendment to the Constitution of the United States, until the disabilities imposed thereby shall have been removed in the manner therein provided; and Congress shall have the power to annul any amendment to the Constitution of Alabama, or any act of the Legislature of said State, contrary to the provisions of this section.

Mr. Spaulding offered as a substitute the bill introduced into the Senate by Mr. Stewart.

Mr. Poland withdrew the substitute of which he gave notice last week.

Mr. Bingham moved to strike out the third section.

Mr. Kelly spoke in favor of the bill; and said that in the name of the Republicans he asked Congress to admit Alabama, and proclaim to every refractory State that will bring a constitution providing, as that of Alabama did, for the right of every man to hold land, to vote and to exercise every other political right, will be admitted, even though terror and threats of clandestine lynching and hanging may have kept some from the polls.

Mr. Stevens, of Pennsylvania, offered an amendment providing that the right of suffrage shall not be denied in any State, except for treason, felony or other crimes, infamous at common law, but that suffrage shall be forever universal and impartial, and that Congress shall have the power to amend any act of the Legislature of Alabama, in violation or derogation of the acts with regard to suffrage, and that in case of the Legislature reducing suffrage below the universal right, all legislation admitting it into the Union shall be null and void.

Farnsworth gave notice that he would move the previous question at half past three to-morrow, and ask a vote at half past four. Adjourned.

Jefferson Davis arrived in Baltimore on Monday.

The strict moralists of Paris, France, are much scandalized by the free and easy conduct of the American belles, who are at present "doing" that lively city.

Sergeant Bates left Columbia, South Carolina, Monday morning for Charlotte. He expects to arrive at Richmond on the 9th of April and Washington on the 14th.

A Washington correspondent says: "A few days since a Radical Congressman, from Pennsylvania, had to leave the dining room of his hotel. The waiter refused to serve him and his lady. Reason: because the lady aforesaid was a female of the town."

The President has done credit to himself and honor to his home, in calling in the Hon. T. A. R. Nelson to his aid as counsel. For integrity, ability, energy and industry, Thomas A. R. Nelson has no superior. Although he hails from the heathen land of East Tennessee, the Congress lawyers will find when they strike old Tom that they have struck a hard ledge.

In Evansville, Indiana, on Sunday, a negro named Hopkins went to the house of Mr. Jack Robinson, for whom he had worked for more than a year. Going at once to the room where Robinson and his wife were sleeping, he struck the former on the head with an ax, cutting a terrible gash on the cheek, and with another blow broke the jawbone and almost severed the chin. The negro then fled to the river, took a skiff and escaped.

Colonel Wm. M. Estelle, who was foully murdered at Jackson, Mississippi, Monday night, was a gallant soldier, a lawyer by profession, was a most genial gentleman, and a native of Tennessee, though he had lived in Mississippi from boyhood. A man named Gibbon from St. Louis, in the service of the internal revenue department, was arrested on the following day on suspicion of having committed the dastardly deed. The bloody knife which was dropped near the scene of the stabbing was traced to him, and makes a strong link in the chain of circumstantial evidence. What makes this terrible affair more melancholy is the impression which prevails, that the blow which cost Colonel Estelle his life was intended for another, and not for him. He served as a Captain in the Second Mississippi regiment during the Mexican war, and held the rank of Colonel in the Confederate army during our late troubles. He was a widower, leaves two children, and was about forty-five years old.

The Ku-Klux Klan is said to number seventy-five thousand members in Alabama. The Lieutenant Grand Cyclops has headquarters in the saddle, and hindquarters in Sacred Serpent's Den, and his camp in a graveyard near Montgomery. His staff consists of Colonel Black Cat, Colonel Grand White Death, Major Rattling Skeleton, Captain Past High Giant and Lieutenant Red Dagger. The Ku-Klux troops are very fond of nigger meat, and the Great Grand Beef Major has just issued ten days' rations of Union Leagues, which destroyed the Radical majority in two whole counties.

Trustee's Sale.

BY virtue of a deed executed to me on the 26th day of January, 1867, by E. S. Plummer, and recorded in the Register's office of Shelby county, Tennessee, in book 59, part 2, pages 225 226, 227, conveying the interest of said Plummer in a certain leasehold for the purpose of securing a debt due to the Franklin Insurance Company, I shall,

On Friday, April 10, 1868,

Between the hours of eleven and twelve o'clock, proceed to sell upon the premises all the interest and title of the said Plummer in a certain lot in the city of Memphis, on the north side of Washington street, which said lot is described as follows in a certain deed from Basilius Lorenz to E. S. Plummer, of record in the Register's office, in book 49, pages 162, 563, viz: Beginning at a stake on the north side of Washington street thirty-one (31) feet and six (6) inches west of John Park's 63 feet lot, running thence one hundred and fifty (150) feet more or less, to the alley between Washington street and Poplar; thence eastwardly with the south side of said alley thirty-one (31) feet and six inches to John Park's line; thence southwardly with John Park's line one hundred and fifty (150) feet more or less, to Washington street; thence westwardly thirty-one feet and six inches to the beginning. The lease of the said Plummer was for a term of fifty years from the 8th of June, 1855, and has upwards of thirty-four years still to run. The property is valuable as an investment, having uniformly yielded a remunerative rental.

MEMPHIS CLUB HALL.—Mr. Mitchell, late "old man" at the theatre, will take a benefit at the Memphis Club Hall to-night. A good bill is offered, and we hope his friends will rally and tender him substantial evidence of their appreciation.

SONS OF TEMPERANCE.—At the last regular meeting of Shelby Division No. 45, Sons of Temperance, the following brothers were elected officers for the ensuing quarter: A C Gillspie, W P; E C Titus, W A; Chas Coffin, R S; T H Shepher, A R S; A Caulk, F S; W C Lyons, Chaplain; Ed Miles, Con; L Dalfroff, A C; Lewis Beebler, I S; S R Gammon, O S; G S Dickinson, P W P.

A NEW MAGISTRATE'S OFFICE.—Mr. H. M. Griffith, who was elected Justice of the Peace in the Fourteenth Civil District at the late election, has opened an office at No. 346 Second street, just opposite the Court House. Mr. Griffith is well known to most of our citizens, and will no doubt make an efficient and impartial official.

THE NEW COURT HOUSE.—One of the oldest and most highly esteemed citizens of this county, has asked the AVALANCHE the following question: "How much has the new Court House cost the people of this county?" This inquiry will be answered by the AVALANCHE as soon as the facts can be obtained.

BURGLARY ON FRONT STREET.—Three negro burglars forced an entrance into the back door of Stanton & Moore's grocery house, on Front street, Wednesday night; two remained outside and the third went in and brought out a box of tobacco. A private watchman discovered them and gave chase. The two first mentioned escaped, but burglar No. 3, evidently determined to bear away his booty, was less fortunate, falling an easy prey. He gave his name as Bob Johnson.

TAXATION AND TAX PAYERS.—Heretofore property holders have given little attention to the action of assessors. Few have furnished descriptions of their property, and very few have shown the assessors what sub-divisions of original lots have been made. It results that many gentlemen who long ago sold parcels of land in the districts recently added to the city will find their names figuring among the long list of defaulters. To save costs and credit it would be well for owners of property to furnish written descriptions of lots which they own in the two new wards. There is an advertisement referring to this subject in another colum. In this connection it may be of interest to know that the assessed valuation of the whole of Fort Pickering is about $100,000. An equal area in North Memphis is deemed much more valuable.

MISS PIERSON'S BENEFIT.—We hope none of our theatre habitues will forget Miss Fanny Pierson's benefit, which is to take place next Monday evening at the New Memphis Theatre. Of her merits as an actress, it is useless to speak at this time. They are universally recognized and appreciated. But there is another fact which Southern people should not overlook. Although coming among us a stranger, she was no stranger farther South during the late war. For upward of four years she devoted her time and energies to the Confederate cause as matron of different Southern hospitals. Hundreds of soldiers now living have reason to thank her for acts of kindness when they were stretched, sick or wounded, on lowly cots. While there, as on the stage afterward and before, she did her duty, winning golden opinions from all. If she possessed no histrionic merit, this fact alone should cause her call for a testimonial to meet with a liberal response. Every seat in the theatre should be filled.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

Seventeen cases were disposed of in police court yesterday.

A negro laborer was drowned, Wednesday afternoon, off a coal barge on the river.

Mr. R. S. Saunders, United States Collector, has been directed to close every distillery in his district which has no bonded warehouse.

The Mr. Griffin, attorney, of Brown & Griffin, is not the gentleman who appeared for Hunter in the AVALANCHE case, the latter's initials being "G. L."

Jake Ackerman, a mackerel chief, was arrested by detectives McCune and Hastings yesterday. In his pocket was found a note of hand for $2,500, which had been abstracted from R. H. Skinner's pocket Tuesday night.

A countryman was swindled out of sixty-one dollars, yesterday, by a scalawag named Billy Raymond, who quickly gave up the money upon seeing Officer Smith approach.

Among the convicts recently pardoned out of the penitentiary are John Bonner, of Shelby county, sentenced May, 1866, to three years, for larceny, and Henry Ferguson, sentenced in 1867, from Hardeman county, for larceny.

On the fourth page will be found an interesting decision of the Supreme Court, delivered by Justice Milligan, relative to the presence of prisoners during their entire trial. The decision declares there can be no constructive presence.

The Spring term of the Supreme Court will be held at Brownsville, and not at Jackson, as is generally understood. It will commence on the first Monday (7th) of April. In a few days we shall publish the official order of business.

We are pleased to notice among the recent arrivals Mr. C. C. Gale, General Southern Agent of the Cleveland, Columbus and Lake Shore Rail road. He is hale and hearty, and bids fair to enjoy the good things of this world for many long years to come.

General Hindman's able defense of the people of Arkansas against Radical usurpations is winning him much renown. As has been already announced, he has taken the field, and is making telling speeches throughout the State to thousands. Last Tuesday he divided time, at Helena, with General Clayton, Radical candidate for Governor. We are informed by a gentleman who heard the debate that General Hindman's excoriation of the carpet bag candidate and his party was most withering. He not only pushed him to the wall, but through it. Our Arkansas friends are making a gallant fight. It would be remarkable if Arkansians did anything else.

The City Engineer and the Nicholson Pavement.

As the official proceedings of the Board of Aldermen, published yesterday, show, the city engineer has called attention to the condition of the Nicholson pavement on Main street. He alludes to the fact that in many places the pavement sinks beneath the weight of animals or vehicles, springing to its proper place with the removal of the pressure. This is attributed to the railway ties being unyielding, while the other portions of the pavement give way. This may be true as far as it goes; but it is not on Main street alone that the pavement fails to come up to the requirements. We have noticed the same tendency to yielding on Second and Madison streets, where there is no railway, although it is not so marked as on Main street. We fear there was too much disposition to hurry the work on all the streets, and as a natural result, frequent repairs will be necessary on all the streets. So far as Main street is concerned, the pavement by no means reaches the standard of excellence for which the people supposed they were paying. Between the railway track, Gayoso gas mains, and hasty paving, there has been some extensive botch-work. Already the city has been compelled to repave much of the space covering the gas mains, and we see nothing in the execution of this task to warrant the belief that its repetition will not be necessary in a few months. If the city engineer were to closely examine all the paved streets he would doubtless find material for another communication to the Board, although the deficiencies on Main street are more glaring than [illegible]

THE CONTESTED ELECTION.

Radical Frauds Exposed—Little General Smith in Confusion.

J. J. Sears' Commission a Forgery—Consternation in the Radical Camp.

Argument of the Case of McLean and Wickersnapper.

The case of Geo. Hayden (colored) against John Norton, (contest for the office of Constable of the Fourteenth Civil District,) coming up before the County Commissioners (Lee and Attorney General Hudson for Hayden and Judges Scruggs and T. W. Brown and Colonel Coleman, attorneys for Norton) on Wednesday.

J. J. Sears being required to produce his commission, proof was then introduced to show that the same was not signed by W. G. Brownlow, Governor, etc., and that the same was a forgery and void. This was clearly established by the testimony of some five respectable gentlemen, and no one to the contrary.

General W. J. Smith being sworn, said: I have saw Governor Brownlow sign his name and write frequently; knew his handwriting, and that seeing the signature to the commission he would take it to be Brownlow's signature.

But being asked by Judge Scruggs if he would swear that he believed it to be the genuine signature of Brownlow, or not, persistently refused to answer, when he was dismissed in disgust.

Barbour Lewis testified unhesitatingly that it was not the genuine signature of W. G. Brownlow, whose testimony was fully corroborated by J. D. Davis, J. W. Smith and others.

J. D. Davis testified that he always claimed that he was wrongfully and illegally removed from the office of Commissioner of Registration, and that the same was accomplished by the most corrupt means; that he was still Register, and that he had registered over 14,000 voters.

It was also proven that Sears registered near 9,000 voters—5,000 legal voters being, by the pretended authority and unlawful interference of said Sears, deprived of their rights at the ballot box; that the judges, under the instructions of said Sears, refused to receive any vote upon the certificate of J. D. Davis.

The law was read directing and requiring the Governor to sign each commission himself, and this being signed by another contrary to law is a forgery, and therefore void, and all acts done and performed by J. J. Sears under this forged commission are void.

Thus it clearly appears from this fact alone, to say nothing of the ten thousand other frauds perpetrated in and about the election, that the same was a stupendous swindle and absolutely void, and confers no right on the claimants to the offices to which they aspired.

The colored citizen manifest a lively interest in the contest, regarding it, no doubt, if successful, as the inauguration of the colored man's right to office, under which they will ere long assert their claim to an exclusive monopoly of all the offices in the State of Tennessee.

Therefore the solution of the contest, for many reasons, is fraught with extraordinary importance, and involves great principles which pertain to the future peace and prosperity of our State.

Judge Scruggs made an able and convincing argument against the right of Hayden to the office under the law. The court adjourned until 9½ a. m. to day, when the case will be resumed, and owing to its importance and the various interests involved, a large crowd will be in attendance. The white radicals are evidently scared up. They see that their four thousand votes in the city will count as naught at the next election, if the colored voters determine on running candidates for all the offices. The negroes see that they do all the voting and naturally will think they are entitled to all the offices; so look out carpet-baggers.

Yesterday the cases of McLean vs. Garvin, and Wickersnapper vs. Leonard, involving the same legal questions arising in the case of Hayden (colored) vs. Norton—except in the latter the repeal of the sixteenth section of the franchise act, were by agreement of counsel, consolidated. The argument was opened by Mr. Hudson, for McLean and Wickersnapper, who was followed by Judge Scruggs for the opposite side. Mr. Phelan spoke for McLean and Wickersnapper. Upon the conclusion of his speech, an adjournment was had until this morning, when Colonel E M. Yerger will make an argument for Garvin and Leonard.

MEMPHIS AND THE COUNTRY.

Forest Hill to be Opened to the Public Again.

Improvements and Inducements to Settle on the Memphis and Charleston Railroad.

A Ventilation of the City's Lungs, of a Practical Nature.

Forest Hill has recently passed in the hands of a gentleman named Almond, a native of Richmond, Virginia, but of later years identified with St. Joseph and Helena. He is a gentleman of great energy, fine practical sense and liberal ideas. It has been proposed to open Forest Hill, about the first of May, as a place of resort. The place is to be put in thorough repair, and under his skillful management will doubtless prove very attractive to many of our people this summer.

It is contemplated to give a ball there on the first of May, when a special train will be placed at the service of those going from the city. The dancing hall, dressing rooms, etc., are amply capacious for the purpose, and such arrangements are likely to be made as will ensure a large attendance and a pleasant occasion.

Mr. Almond desires to have the school reopened at Forest Hill as soon as the necessary arrangements can be perfected, but this laudable aim may be delayed some months on account of the fire which destroyed one of the college buildings some time since.

We learn that Esquire Moore, of this city, has bought a place adjoining Forest Hill, and already set out several hundred fruit trees and made other improvements, with a view of making that his future home.

Others in the neighborhood are making improvements and preparing to farm in the most energetic and improved style. The community is noted for its refined society, quiet, law-abiding citizens and social amenities. Being only eighteen miles from town, it is a convenient place for business men to make their summer quarters. Many families have already prepared to go there and to other points on the railroad accessible to the city when the hot summer months set in.

The Memphis and Charleston railroad officials are disposed to be accommodating to the public, and the time is not far off, we are assured, when trains will be run on schedules to suit all business men who are disposed to make their homes along the railroad as far out as Collierville. Some change may be made if found desirable during the summer, for the convenience of those who do not wish to keep their families here through the season of epidemics. Many people avail themselves of the Somerville accommodation train, and have already settled at McGhee's, White's, Ridgeway, Germantown, and further out.

Whenever the public become assured that trains will run permanently to suit business men, hundreds of people will buy lots and build homes on them along the road as far out as Collierville and even Moscow. These stations and towns will grow up into suburban proportions and features. The value of property will be enhanced hundreds of per cent.; land will be improved and cut up into gardens, orchards and vinegards, and the city, while expanding far into the country like all real cities do, will reap a rich benefit in cheap markets, improved general health and increase of substantial population.

It is said that the suburbs of a city are its lungs. If that is so, Memphis is weak in the chest, with a strong tendency to consumption. We have no public gardens of any consequence, no long drives, no place where the people may breathe freely, except out on the bluff. The extension of our suburbs out on the railroads, with cheap transportation adapted to business hours and working men, would be, if not a complete remedy, an infinite relief and advantage.

Gents' clothing at greatly reduced prices; gents' fall bosom and linen bosom shirts, $1 25; gents' hemmed handkerchiefs, 25c; gents' good cassimere hats, $2—at J. H. Loewenstine & Bro.'s, 231 Main street. Open till nine p.m. tf

Murray and Ridgely, merchant tailors, 31 Madison street, have received a well selected stock of cloths, cassimeres and vestings, which for style and quality, cannot be surpassed in this or any other city.

Victor D. Fuchs has just received a large supply of Savannah river shad, and keeps constantly on hand fresh butter, eggs, game of all kinds, and a large supply of family groceries, at 41 Jefferson street.

BLEWIS, THE INFAMOUS.

History of His Late Illicit Speculations in County Warrants.

His Guilt Punishable by Fine, Removal and Disqualification.

Hudson, the Prosecuting Attorney, Refuses to Frame the Indictment.

A Solemn Oath Wilfully Disregarded—The Facts and the Law.

The Grand Jury Ordered to Reassemble and Make Thorough Investigation.

The revelations in the AVALANCHE of the latest infamy of the mountain of corrupt flesh known as Barbour Lewis was the sensation of yesterday. It was universally commented upon, and while none were surprised that he should connive at or perpetrate rascality, few believed even him capable of committing a grave misdemeanor so unblushingly. But that he is guilty of the grave charge is as certain as that the world stands. The evidence is positive, and neither Lewis nor his friends dare attempt to disprove it.

The importance of the case induces us to give a history of it, which has been obtained from a reliable source:

About three months ago several citizens ascertained that certain county officers were speculating in county warrants. We mentioned the affair, and called upon all persons possessing positive knowledge of the fact to report it to the Grand Jury. Two or three county officers interested themselves in ferreting the matter out, and a well known lawyer of the city was retained to accomplish the object desired.

An officer in a prominent Jefferson street bank and one in a Madison street banking institution were summoned before the Grand Jury. They appeared and gave evidence. It was conclusive—proving, without the shadow of a doubt, that Barbour Lewis, chairman of the County Commissioners, whose position enables him to form an idea of even the prospective value of them, had on more than one occasion speculated in county warrants. In direct violation of his oath he had bought these warrants at less than their nominal value. The gentlemen introduced to prove these facts are old residents, and of unimpeachable integrity.

An effort was made to secure Lewis' indictment before the Grand Jury then existing, but without success. It was found impossible to bring the prosecuting attorney to the point of framing the bill. It was understood that Hudson would throw every obstacle in the way of the prosecution. So the matter was dropped for the time.

It was believed by Lewis that his triumph was final. But the grand jury of the present term of the Court exhumed the charge. The same proof first introduced was again made; it was shown conclusively that this corrupt official had bought county warrants at a discount more than once, and at more than one place. The grand jury, as before, were rewarded for their efforts by the prosecuting attorney coolly refusing to take any action. His reason for so doing, as given by the Grand Jury, was because "no prosecutor has appeared before us."

There was a prosecutor, who failed to come before Mr. Hudson because he could not obtain an opportunity to do so. But Mr. Hudson cannot shield himself behind this unworthy subterfuge. If he did not know better, he is unfit to enter a court room. It is true that, according to section 5096 of the Code, no "District Attorney shall prefer a bill of indictment without a prosecutor marked thereon, unless otherwise expressly provided by law." But it is "otherwise expressly provided" in section 5097, which says that "a prosecutor is dispensed with, and the District Attorney may file bills of indictment, officially, and without a prosecutor marked on the same," on fourteen different grounds, one of which—and the first mentioned—is: "Upon a presentment."

Was there a presentment? The Grand Jury settle that question in a few words:

"Both of the foregoing cases have been duly presented to the prosecuting attorney, and he has been requested to frame indictments, which he declines doing, for the reason that no prosecutor has appeared before us."

The solemn oath of Mr. Hudson, requires him to discharge the duties of his office without "fear, favor or affection." Section 3,961 makes it his duty to send all indictments, ex officio, in the cases prescribed in section 5,097, which is given above. Nothing is more clear than this.

We have the startling spectacle of a sworn officer wilfully violating the provisions of a law too plainly laid down to be mistaken. The Grand Jury prove that Barbour Lewis, "the Chairman of the Board of County Commissioners, while occupying such responsible position, has bought county warrants at less than their nominal value in several cases. The evidence of such purchases was so very clear and direct that we feel it our duty to present the case to the prosecuting attorney."

Section 4,815 says it is a misdemeanor "for any judicial, ministerial or executive officer, either directly or indirectly, to speculate in State or county claims, by purchasing or trading for them at less than their nominal value."

The penalty of this is not only fine, but removal from office, and disqualification forever from holding office under the laws and Constitution of the State.

Lewis was proved guilty; the prosecuting attorney had an imperative duty to perform. He had no option in the matter. Yet, to shield his personal and political friend from punishment, he has at least twice violated his solemn obligation. There was a time when such conduct as this could not go unpunished a single day; but in this era of Radicalism it will be regarded as but a new evidence of party fealty.

We are glad to announce that notwithstanding Hudson's chicanery in behalf of the infamous Lewis, the latter's gross misconduct is not to escape punishment. Yesterday Judge Waldran ordered the reassemblage of the grand jury to-day to investigate the matter. Even the pitiful dodge "no prosecutor" will be denied the attorney, for one will be on time. We shall see whether Hudson dare furnish another repitition of his disgraceful conduct.

The community is disgraced every day that Lewis remains in the position he has prostituted to the basest ends. Let him be hurled from it by the strong arm of the law.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.

Loss Estimated at About $30,000—Insurance, $14,000.

A little before two o'clock yesterday morning, Mr. Henry Cooper, a clerk in McLean & Monaghan's liquor store at the foot of Jefferson street, who slept in the building, was awakened by the strong smell of smoke, and a moment afterward realized that the block had been fired. He at once arose, and sought another room to awaken a brother of Mr. Monaghan. Both busied themselves in saving their effects, and lost little time in leaving the burning building. In his hurry Mr. Cooper, left a pair of pantaloons containing $175.

The flames, which originated in McLean & Monoghan's, spread so rapidly, that before the arrival of the engines they had attained too much headway to be arrested. The building was rendered a wreck, and the stock almost totally destroyed. Messrs. Hunn & Co., bakers in the basement, removed their stock and avoided loss.

We learn that Messrs. McLean & Monaghan are losers, in stock and fixtures, to the amount of $20,000. They are insured for $10,000—$5,000 in the Phœnix of New York, and $5,000 in the Manhattan of New York. The buildings belonged to Messrs. Elliott & Co., whose loss will not fall far short of $8,000. They are insured for $2,000 in the Ætna and $2,000 in the Manhattan.

This fire, of course, was the result of incendiarism. It is the third occurring in that row on the batture since the war.

IMMIGRATION.

The Movement in Mississippi—A Meeting in Holly Springs Yesterday.

HOLLY SPRINGS, March 26, 1868.

At a meeting at the court house to take into consideration the planting and mercantile interest of this county upon the subject of immigration, and to appoint delegates to the convention at Jackson on the 31st of March instant,

Colonel A. J. Withers was called to the chair upon motion, and W. M. Strickland, Esq., was appointed Secretary. After the object of the meeting was stated by the chairman, Colonel John McGuirk offered the following resolutions, which were unanimously carried, as follows:

Resolved, That the Chairman appoint a committee of delegates to attend the Planters' Convention to be held at the city of Jackson, Mississippi, on Tuesday, the 31st instant, to aid, if need be, in the organization of a State Immigration Company and such other auxiliary associations, either by States, counties or private stock companies, as will aid in developing the agricultural resources of the South by introducing immigrants, settlers and tillers of the soil, and such other questions connected with the enterprise as may be deemed proper.

Colonel McGuirk then read a dispatch from the President of the Mississippi Central railroad company, stating that the delegates would be passed to and returning from the convention free of charge.

A motion was offered by Colonel Upshaw that the Chairman be permitted to make the appointments to the convention at his leisure. This was withdrawn, and the Chairman appointed the following gentlemen as delegates from this county, to wit:

NAMES OF DELEGATES.

J W Fant, John H Miller, Dixon Topp, T G Malone, A M Hardin, J B Conley, T G Hudson, William Hall, John McGuirk, James Potts, Dr T Sale, George Boggan, Dr J S McRaven, John B Faut, William F Mason, J H Ricord, W W Wallace, A M Clayton, M Jones, H E Williamson, S Boling, Colonel Man, H Manning, Colonel E W Upshaw, W M Strickling, William Cramp, Senior, Colonel William Lumpkin, B Trigg, John M Anderson, Major Kinlock Falconer, F B Shaforee, M J Coxe, Samuel Frank. To which may be added the chairman of this meeting, Colonel A J Withers.

Resolved, That the proceedings be published in the Holly Springs Reporter and Clarion, and Memphis papers.

A. J. WITHERS, Chairman.
WILLIAM M. STRICKLAND, Secretary.

GRAND JURY.

Text of the Suppressed Paragraph of the Report.

We subjoin four paragraphs—the pith of the recent report of the Municipal Grand Jury—which it was impossible to give in full yesterday:

In the early part of our session we received partial information of informalities in the office of the County Tax Collector. Some little difficulty in getting witnesses and books before us, and other business which at the time seemed to be of more importance, prevented an immediate and full investigation of the matter.

It now appears to us, however, from testimony, and from books obtained from the Tax Collector's office, that the County Tax Collector has been in the habit of withholding certain moneys of the county from the Trustee, and paying the same to certain other county officers for county warrants at par. As these transactions have been made while the county treasury was without money to meet just demands in their legitimate course, while evidences of county indebtedness were depreciated in the market 12½ to 25c on the dollar, while the County Commissioners were adding the depreciation to scrip in payment of cash bills, and these facts must necessarily have been known to the Tax Collector, we cannot look upon the transaction in other light than as a misdemeanor on the part of the Tax Collector.

It appears, also, from testimony given to us, that the Chairman of the Board of County Commissioners, while occupying such responsible position, had bought county warrants at less than their nominal value in several cases. The evidence of such purchases was so very clear and direct that we felt it our duty to present the case to the prosecuting attorney.

Both of the foregoing cases have been duly presented to the prosecuting attorney, and he has been requested to frame indictments, which he declines doing, for the reason that no prosecutor has appeared before us.

TRAGIC.

Two or three evenings since Mr. Robert Banks, a well and favorably known citizen, was thrown from his buggy in South Memphis, and last evening he expired from the injuries received by the fall. He was a son of Enoch Banks, who was once Mayor of the city, and, was formerly a partner in the planing mills of Moore, Halstead & Banks. His wife died about one year ago, and he was returning from Elmwood cemetery, where he had been to plant flowers on her grave, when his horse suddenly took fright and ran away, causing the fatal catastrophe. The deceased was about forty years of age.

His death has thrown a peculiar shadow in the walks of life where he was well known. He was greatly devoted to his wife in her lifetime, and since her death had never recovered his accustomed cheerfulness. That he should meet his death when just from the city of the dead where his affections were buried, and where he placed the first flowers of spring, the symbols of hope, was peculiarly melancholy and touching.

The Arkansas Movement in Favor of Conservative Immigration.

HELENA, March 13th 1868.

EDITORS AVALANCHE:—An opportunity is offered in the city of Helena, which, if rightly embraced, will secure the prosperity of those immediately interested. The great bulk of the citizens of Helena are Southern men, conservative in principle, and patriotic in intention. Since the close of the war these men have been compelled, by the force of circumstances, to patronize certain branches of business, carried on by men whose political views and daily practice are at variance with the best interests of this people. The least objection to these men is that they are Yankees and negroes; it is the sedition and incendiarism which they teach and daily practice. What has elicited the solemn determination of the people of Helena to cease to contribute a single dime to the sustenance of these ungrateful fools and designing knaves, who have given us a modern illustration of the fable of the frozen snake. You of Memphis have a surplus of your industrial population—that portion of it who are white and conservative, or black and true to the real friends of the blackman. We want some of them. We want a first class tinner, who can connect with his legitimate trade a lucrative hardware business. No one-horse concern do we want, but a tinnery and hardware house which can supply every want of that trade as required in your own or any other city. We want a dozen white Conservative, honest, industrious draymen. They can do a No 1 business here, and every merchant in town, except three, who tremble under the radical lash, have promised to sustain them. Let them come, and come at once, assured of a full patronage and a cordial welcome. We want, and must have, one or two well regulated, neat, and if possible, elegant barber shops, owned and carried on by white or colored men, who must be Conservative to the core—that is essential. A hundred and fifty gentlemen have pledged themselves to sustain them, and our whole population will extend to them a thorough and hearty support. We have heard dozens of gentlemen exclaim since the recent sneaking hostility to Southern men, white and black, and the Radical-worshiping proclivities of the two nigger barber shops of Helena, that they never would have tonsorial operations performed here while these fellows were the only knights of the razor-strop to be found in the city. The present shops are simply nuisances. Let Conservative barbers come, and if they unite with their business the art of good musicians they will pocket many an X at balls and parties now monopolized by Radical nigs. We sadly need a few No. 1 blacksmiths, carpenters, tailors and house and sign painters; and if you could send us two or three dozen experienced house servants (white) you would confer a benefit on us and them. There are dozens of occupations here now filled by idle, thankless, Yankee duped niggers, from which they derive an easy and good living, and from which they nightly sally forth to attend Loyal Leagues, which ought to be and could be much more profitably filled by white men—white men now in destitution, who vote with us and act with us, who are not Radical spies and pimps, and who deserve to be sustained. Send them along; they will all be welcome. Yours, PUBLIC OPINION.

Demise of S. Kibbee—Tribute of Respect by Memphis Typographical Union, No. 11.

WHEREAS, The Great Distributor of Events has closen the last chapter in the Life of our Fellow-Craftsman, S. KIBBEE, and left us a Volume of Actions, wherein we find nothing to condemn, but, much to admire, as a Brother and a Workman; therefore,

Resolved, by the Memphis Typographical Union, No. 11, That in the death of S. KIBBEE their Association has lost a useful member, society a worthy man, and a large family a kind protector and provider.

Resolved, That as his career as a disciple of Faust was worthy of imitation, we keep the memory of our deceased Brother green in our hearts, and wear the usual badge of mourning as an emblem of our sorrow.

Resolved, That we sincerely sympathize with the family of deceased in their affliction, and hope the Great Father, who dispenseth blessings to all his children, may soothe their suffering.

RIVER NEWS.

DAILY AVALANCHE OFFICE,
FRIDAY, March 27.

BOATS LEAVING TO-DAY.

Belle St. Louis	ST. LOUIS	5 p.m.
Minneola	CINCINNATI	5 p.m.
May Flower	EVANSVILLE	5 p.m.
Natoma	FRIAR'S POINT	5 p.m.

BUSINESS—WEATHER—RIVERS.

Weather clear and cool. The river here is still swelling and is gradually encroaching on the levee, but will probably come to a stand to-day, as all the upper streams are declining rapidly. At St. Louis the river is receding slowly, with a good stage out to Cairo. The Ohio is falling from Pittsburg down to Evansville, with fifteen feet in the canal and eleven feet steamboat water on the falls. White river continues at high tide. The Arkansas is declining rapidly, with nine feet water in the channel to Little Rock.

ARRIVALS.

Steamer Centralia, Little Rock.
" Pauline Carroll, New Orleans.
" Alice Dean, New Orleans.
" Belle St. Louis, St. Louis.
" May Flower, Evansville.
" Alice V., New Orleans.

DEPARTURES.

Steamer Pauline Carroll, St. Louis.
" Adam Jacobs, St. Louis.
" Alice Dean, Cincinnati.
" Florence Traber, Little Rock.
" Tempest, White river.
" Alice V., Cincinnati.

BOATS IN PORT.

Natoma, Centralia, Minneola, Belle St. Louis, May Flower.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Business on the wharf yesterday was extremely dull, with freights for all points scarce.

The Tempest, of Louisville, en route to White river, was to have left last night, but was delayed in patching her boilers, which are none of the best. She is a true specimen of the Ohio river played-out stern wheelers.

The Centralia arrived from Little Rock Wednesday night. She brought out 800 bales of cotton, which she reshipped on the Governor Allen for New Orleans. The Centralia leaves on Monday night for the raging Arkansas.

The Natoma, Captain James Lee, leaves to-day at five p.m. for Friar's Point, Moon Lake and way points in the bends. Billie Fields and Stack Lee, two attentive clerks, have charge of the office.

The Airdrie coaling depot is removed from Haile's Point, and permanently established at Fulton, Tennessee, where steamboatmen will find it to their interest to coal. This coal is A No. 1.

The Minneola, Captain Miller, is announced for Cincinnati to day at five p.m.

The Mayflower, Captain J. V. Throop, will be in port this morning to receive for Cairo and Evansville, and leave at five p.m. Duke Nicholson and Charley Throop are her clerks.

The regular Saturday White river mail packet Liberty No. 2 will be in port to-day to receive for White river and all way points, and leave to-morrow at five p.m.

The Belle St. Louis, Captain Zeigler, leaves to-day at five p.m. for St. Louis.

The Great Republic and Lady Gay are due from New Orleans, en route for St. Louis.

The Ruth is due from St. Louis, en route to New Orleans.

The following are the rates of freights from St. Louis to New Orleans by boats—Flour, 40c; pork, 65c; corn, 30c; oats, 35c; pound, 25@75c. By barge—Flour, 35; pork, 57½c; corn, 27½c; oats, 32½c; pound, 22½c. To Memphis—Flour, 35c; pork, 50c; corn, oats, hay, bacon, etc., 20c per 100 pounds; pound freight, 20@30c.

Captain Jo. Brown and Captain John Bofinger are at Jefferson City, Missouri, buying over the "true Loil" legislators who misrepresent Missouri, to secure legislation favorable to their interests. Joe Brown, who is truly "loil," and, like all Radical thieves, wishes to avoid paying the Government tax on his steamboat interest, has also petitioned the Legislature to take off the tax on steamboats, and to have about ten thousand dollars remitted to the Atlantic and Mississippi Steamship Company, which they claim was in excess of a reasonable taxation; and to prevent, if possible, the passage of the bill permitting the citizens of St. Louis to vote whether or not the city shall indorse the bridge bonds.

The river at Cairo is declining rapidly and will commence falling here to-day.

The St. Louis Clerk's Union Association at a recent meeting in that city, elected the following officers: Samuel Beltzhoover, president; Joe Robinson and John Lyle, vice presidents; John Clemens, Junior, secretary; G. H. Deane, corresponding secretary, and George H. Reader, treasurer.

The Pauline Carroll and Alice Dean passed up yesterday morning.

Mat. Monaghan's boat store in the Bradley Block was burned out night before last. Mr. Cooper and Mr. Monaghan, the clerks, sleeping over the store, came near being burned up. They lost all their clothing. Mr. Cooper lost a valuable watch, and one hundred and seventy-five dollars.

A thunder storm, with heavy rain, prevailed at St. Louis on Tuesday.

The Zephrey was to be sold by the United States Marshal, at St. Joseph, on Wednesday. The claims against her amount to $6,000.

The latest news from other ports will be found among our telegrams.

Rates of freight at St. Louis, for New Orleans, have advanced thirty per cent.

The Longworth arrived at Evansville on Tuesday, and will probably lay up.

The river is falling fast this evening, with fourteen feet in the canal, eleven feet steamboat water on the falls. Weather clear. Thermometer 70°. The Rob Roy, Empire and W. F. Curtis passed up. The New State departed for Pittsburg; she took 2,000 sacks wheat and 200 bundles cane poles off the Norman. The Cora S. reshipped 3,000 sacks corn, on the Empire, for Cincinnati. The Legal Tender came over the falls, and received 1,000 barrels cement, at Jeffersonville, for St. Louis. The total of coal boats run to this port from Pittsburg, sums up twenty-four boats with fifty one barges, and 106 boats, with 2,500,000 bushels of coal. The total exports, thus far, were ten boats with 1,400,000 bushels of coal. Nearly 1,000,000 bushels are moored at the foot of the falls, for transhipment South. The W. F. Curtis passed up last night with 9,100 sacks of corn, for reshipment East, via the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, from Parkersburg.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

A cough, a cold or a sore throat requires immediate attention and should be checked. If allowed to continue, irritation of the lungs, a permanent throat disease or consumption is often the result. Brown's Bronchial Troches, having a direct influence to the parts, give immediate relief. For bronchitis, asthma, catarrh, consumptive and throat diseases, Troches are used with always good success. Singers and public speakers use them to clear and strengthen the voice. Obtain only "Brown's Bronchial Troches," and do not take any of the worthless imitations that may be offered. Sold everywhere. eod4m

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, for children teething, greatly facilitates the process of teething, by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation; will allay all pain and spasmodic action, and is sure to regulate the bowels. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and relief and health to your infants. We have put up and sold this article for years, and can say in confidence and truth of it what we have never been able to say of any other medicine—never has it failed in a single instance to affect a cure, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operation, and speak in terms of commendation of its medical effects and medical virtues. We speak in this matter "what we know," after years of experience, and pledge our reputation for the fulfillment of what we here declare. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered. Full directions for using will accompany each bottle. Be sure and call for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," having the fac-simile of "Curtis & Perkins" on the outside wrapper. All others are base imitations. Sold by all druggists throughout the world. Price only thirty-five cents per bottle. Offices—215 Fulton street, New York; 205 High Holborn, London England; 441 St. Paul street, Montreal, Canada.

MONETARY.

DAILY AVALANCHE OFFICE,
FRIDAY, March 27, 1868.

Local finances remain quiet and steady, with little animation exhibited in the market. Money continues to rule close with little doing in the discount market. The rates of interest are firm and unchanged. Exchange is firm and scarce, buying at ⅜@¼ off, and selling at ¼c. premium.

COMMERCIAL.

DAILY AVALANCHE OFFICE,
FRIDAY, March 27, 1868.

Business in the general market yesterday exhibited a fair movement. During the morning the market was well supplied, with an active city trade doing. Provisions and breadstuffs are firm and active. The other markets are steady and unchanged.

Cotton.

The market yesterday was dull and nominal at the previous day's quotations. There was a fair inquiry, with buyers offering 23½c. for middling, but holders were unwilling to sell at that rate, and held firm at 24c. The market throughout the day was inactive, and exhibited very little spirit. Holders were firm and buoyant, with few buyers on the market that were disposed to operate. A few bales of lower grades changed hands at irregular rates. The market closed quiet. Our quotations are nominal. The New York market closed active, at full prices. Sales for the day 4,000 bales. The Liverpool market closed firm. Sales for the day 12,000 bales; uplands, 10½d; Orleans, 10¾.

LEGAL.

Decisions of the Supreme Court of Tennessee at Nashville, December Term, 1867.

Reported for the Union and Dispatch, by S. J. Henderson, Attorney at Law.

"It is error for the Court to re-state, 'in substance,' a portion of his original charge to the jury, in the absence of the prisoner."

Same—The prisoner must be personally present throughout his entire trial.

Lucius Witt (colored) vs. the State.

The prisoner, Lucius Witt, a man of color, was indicted in the Criminal Court of Rutherford county for the murder of Samuel Cunningham, also colored. He was subsequently tried, convicted, and sentenced to be executed, from which he has appealed to this court.

After the court charged the jury and remanded the prisoner to jail, they retired to consider of their verdict; and after remaining out for several hours, they returned in a body into court, and upon being asked if they had agreed in their verdict, they replied they had not. They were then inquired if there was any disagreement among themselves as to the charge of the court, to which they responded there was. The court instructed them to retire and ascertain the matter of disagreement, and then again return and report it to the court. They did so, and upon their return reported, their misunderstanding related to that portion of the charge in which the distinction was drawn between murder in the first and murder in the second degree. Thereupon the court proceeded in the absence of the prisoner, but in open court, and in the presence of his counsel, to re-state in substance that portion of his original charge in relation to the distinction between murder in the first and second degree. The jury again retired, and soon thereafter returned with a verdict of guilty, and upon which the court, after overruling a motion for a new trial, pronounced sentence of death upon the prisoner.

Under this state of the record, the single question is presented whether or not it was error for the court to restate "in substance" a portion of his original charge to the jury in the absence of the prisoner?

By the vigorous rule of the ancient common law, which has been greatly relaxed by the advance of civilization and Christian philanthropy, the prisoner even in capital cases, which tried upon the general issue, was bound to make his own defense. No counsel was allowed him unless some point of law arose proper to be debated, 4 Black, com. 255. This same iron rule rested on the maxim that "the Judge is counsel for the prisoner," which seems to signify nothing more than that the Judge shall take care that the prisoner does not suffer for the want of counsel. The Judge is counsel only for public justice, and to promote that object alone, all his inquiries and attention ought to be directed, but this rule as far back as the days of Cicero and Panastius, was felt to be exceedingly harsh and unsound, resting neither in reason or principles of common humanity. Both of these great lights even in their day took the well drawn distinction between the duty of a Judge and of counsel. The former was bound simply to pursue the truth of the cause, and while the latter, out of humanity, was permitted to urge what was only its semblance. Cicero de Off. lib. 36, 14.

But without stopping to criticise the right of an advocate to urge, under any circumstances, the mere semblance of truth, it is enough to say that our bill of rights, article 1, section 9, Constitution of Tennessee, has given to the accused the right to be heard, both by himself and his counsel. The broad language of the section is: "That in all criminal prosecutions the accused hath a right to be heard by himself and his counsel; to demand the nature and the cause of the accusation against him, and to have a copy thereof; to meet the witness face to face; to have compulsory process for obtaining witnesses in his favor; and in prosecutions by indictment or presentment, a speedy public trial, by an impartial jury of the country or district in which the crime shall have been committed; and shall not be compelled to give evidence against himself."

Following the principles of this humane and just provision of the bill of rights, which, in some degree is in conformity to the more modern principles of the common law, this court, in the case of Andrews vs. the State, 2 Sneed, 550, said: "In criminal cases of the grade of felony, where the life or liberty of the accused is in peril, he has the right to be present, and must be present during the trial, and until the final judgment. If he be absent, either in prison or by escape, there is want of jurisdiction over the person to proceed with the trial, or to receive the verdict or to pronounce the final judgment." Clark vs. the State, 4 Hum., 254; Hawk P. C., 619; C. & Lit., 287; Raymond 193; 2 Hale 300; 4 Black's Com., 395; Bacon's Al., verdict, B, 1 Chitty's Crim. Law, 636; to which may be added Wharton's Am. Crim. Law, 919; 1 Chitty's Crim. Law, 418; Jacob's vs Cone, 5 Serg. & R., 335; 2 Hale, 216; and the State vs. France, 1 Tenn.

But the argument is, that in the case now under consideration, the counsel of the prisoner was present when the court restated the substance of his instruction to the jury, and this answered both the requirements of the bill of rights and the authorities relied on by the opposing counsel. We cannot concur in this proposition. The presence of the counsel of the accused alone does not meet either the letter or the spirit of the bill of rights, or the authorities above quoted. The prisoner has the right to be heard, both "by himself and his counsel;" and that, too, during the entire trial. It is not enough that he meets the witnesses "face to face," and is permitted to be present at the argument of his cause. The right is guaranteed to him to conduct his own defense, or to aid his chosen counsel in doing so, and to be present as well when the charge of the court is delivered to the jury, as when their verdict is returned into open court. When the trial is once begun, it is not strictly ended until the verdict of the jury is delivered and received by the court and final judgment pronounced thereon.

It is true the prisoner need not remain in court during the retirement of the jury to consider their verdict, but if they voluntarily return to deliver their verdict, the court has no power to receive it in the absence of the prisoner; and if it be received for want of jurisdiction, it is a nullity. Andrews vs. the State, 2 Sneed 550; so, also, it is the prisoner's right, if, after the original charge has been delivered and the jury has retired to consider of their verdict, the court recalls them to charge, or to alter or modify it in any respect, to be present and witness whatever is done in court touching his trial; and with equal reason and authority, he has the right to be present when the jury, without being recalled, voluntarily returns into open court, and asks for further instructions, or even for a restatement of the original charge. In either event his life or liberty may be effected by it, and he has the constitutional right to be personally present, and to guard both by all the forms of law that he can make availing in his favor.

Without this salutary rule, cases might be supposed in which the grossest injustice might be done to the prisoner. Counsel, like Judges, are but men, and subject to all the frailties, passions and prejudices of human nature, and in cases of great enormity, eliciting high popular feeling or unbounded family pride, the chosen counsel of the prisoners might, through fear or other cause, in the absence of his client, be thrown off his guard, and suffer remarks to pass from the court to the jury, without exception, which would prove fatal to the prisoner. It would be far otherwise were the prisoner present in the enjoyment of his constitutional rights, stimulated by the perils of his situation. He is presumed, by the common interests of his nature, to be alive to his interest, and ready to catch every improper remark that might by accident, or otherwise, fall from the court. And again, in the event the prisoner elected, as he has the unquestioned right to do, to conduct his own defense either in whole or in part, the rule in such a case insisted on by the State, would be utterly impracticable and absurd, for he could not be absent as a prisoner and present as counsel at the same time. In any aspect in which it can be viewed, the rule admitting the personal presence of the prisoner throughout his entire trial, is too sacred to human life and liberty to be relaxed.

It follows, therefore, that the court erred in restating the substance of a portion of his charge in the absence of the prisoner, for which the judgment and sentence of the court must be reversed, and a new trial granted.

The FINLEY DASHER makes from TEN to FIFTEEN agitations at each up and down motion.
The old Dasher CANNOT supply the requisite amount of air
The FINLEY DASHER DOES introduce large and constant supplies of fresh air.
The old Dasher leaves from ONE-FOURTH to ONE-THIRD of the butter in the cream, because it CANNOT remove it.
The FINLEY DASHER takes ALL the butter out of the cream, and therefore ONE-FOURTH to ONE-THIRD more than the old Dasher.
The old Dasher requires the hard work of a HALF to ONE HOUR. The FINLEY DASHER WILL DO THE SAME WORK in from FIVE to FIFTEEN minutes.
The old Dasher consumes TWENTY to TWENTY-SIX HOURS EACH MONTH in churning. The FINLEY DASHER does the same work in LESS THAN FIVE HOURS and with GAIN in QUANTITY of butter sufficient to buy TWO FINLEY DASHERS at three dollars each.
The FINLEY DASHER can be SO EASILY CLEANED—made "bright as a spoon," and WILL RETAIN ITS SWEETNESS, so essential to good milk and butter.
The FINLEY DASHER gives to the butter a decidedly firm, "waxy," "grainy" appearance—better for table, with more in the market.
The FINLEY DASHER, in the latter respect has the advantage over all Crank or Rotary Churns—THEY TAKE THE GRAIN OUT OF THE BUTTER AND LEAVE IT FLAT.
The FINLEY DASHER will last a life time if not abused.
The FINLEY DASHER is adapted to "old fashioned churns."
ANY ONE can use the FINLEY DASHER—so simple.
The FINLEY DASHER is being used over the greater portion of Middle and West Tennessee, North and Central Mississippi, Kentucky, Arkansas, Texas, Alabama, Missouri, Kansas, Iowa, Illinois, Ohio and Western New York, with the very greatest satisfaction.
